

Association of Caribbean Occupational Therapists Presents Webinar Series 2020

Introduction to Taiwan and Taiwan's Policy for COVID-19 Pandemic

Dr. Ching-yi Wu

Dr. Ching-yi Wu is Distinguished Professor and Chair of Department of Occupational Therapy at College of Medicine at Chang Gung University in Taiwan. Professor Wu also acts as Director of Healthy Aging Research Center. She is President of Taiwan Occupational Therapy Association since November 2019. She is an awarded Member of the Academy of Research at American Occupation Therapy Foundation and serves as Associate Editor of OTJR: Occupation, Participation and Health.

Learning Objectives:

- Introduction to Occupational Therapy in Taiwan
- Introduction to COVID-19 Epidemic prevention measures at individual and societal levels
- Brief description of OT response to prevention measures at hospital

The recommendation for Occupational therapy in COVID-19 pandemic from Taiwan Occupational Therapy Association.

Dr. Athena Yijung Tsai

Dr Athena Yijung Tsai is the assistant professor of Kaohsiung Medical University, Taiwan. Dr Tsai's professional expertise includes long-term care, health policy and gerontological OT services. She served in the WFOT Executive Management Team in 2014-2018. Recently, she received honors as WFOT merit award, Sato Lectureship of Asia-Pacific Occupational Therapy Regional Groups, and Eight Virtue Awards in Taiwan.

Learning Objectives:

- The role of occupational therapist in the COVID-19 pandemics.
- The rights of occupational therapist in the difficult situations.
- Resources from the international network

THURSDAY JUNE 4, 2020

9 p m / A S T

<https://meet.google.com/ecq-ycee-vfw>

Contact us at acotmembership@gmail.com for more information.